“If we wish to discover the truth about an educational system, we just look into its assessment procedures.” (Rowntree, 1977, P.1)

1. Rationale of the Policy

In view of Covid-19 pandemic, NUML Assessment/Examination and admission policy, covering various aspects of online academic affairs, has been formulated to ensure quality of education and practice merit-based promotions. The main objective is to keep optimal standards intact and not to compromise on quality of education. It encompasses matters related to assessment/examination, admissions and academic calendar for the year 2020-21. Moreover, the purpose of this policy is to cover the generic and specific needs of all NUML faculties.

2. Objectives of the Policy

- a. To ensure optimal standards of evaluation and examination
- b. To have transparent and uniform policy guidelines for all faculties and regional campuses of NUML
- c. To formulate special/specific admission policy for Fall 2020
- d. To protect NUML Academic Calendar for 2020-21.

3. Scope of the Policy:

This Policy shall apply to all faculties, departments and branches engaged in imparting online education in the main campus as well as all the regional campuses.

The policy comprises four parts: minor changes in NUML calendar timelines; guidelines for evaluation and assessment process for Spring semester 2020; admissions Fall-2020; and Summer Semester 2020. The policy also highlights the roles and responsibilities of Deans, HoDs/RDs, ICT, Exam, Academic and QEC branches NUML.

Part-1 Academic Calendar 2020-21

With a view to ensure the maximum protection of the existing academic calendar, following minor adjustments are made:

S.No.	Activity	Start Date	End Date
1.	Remaining Spring Semester	18-05-2020	30-06-2020
2.	Revision of Courses/ Comprehensive Test*	01-07-2020	08-07-2020
3.	Summer Semester	15-07-2020	31-08-2020
4.	Admission Fall Semester	15-07-2020	31-08-2020
5.	Commencement of the Fall Semester	02-09-2020	31-12-2020

* A comprehensive test will be devised by the departments and be held in case students return to the campuses.

Note 1. The University has the right to make changes in the above given timelines in case the government decides to open educational institutions earlier.

Note 2. For the remaining period of Spring and Summer semesters 2020, the online working hours and teaching timetables will be extended for six days a week (Monday through Saturday) to complete all academic requirements and make up for the lost time during the pandemic.

Part-II Grading and Assessment Mechanism

1. In addition to existing grading and examination rules and procedures, NUML shall adopt and adapt the following criterion for the purpose of continuous assessment.

Class Participation (10)	Oral exam/Quizzes (20)*		Assignment/Presentation (20)		Project/Term Paper/Lab Work (20)	Comprehensive Test (30)	Total Marks
	I	II	I	II
10	10	10	10	10	20	30	100

* Deans and HoDs have liberty to adjust distribution of 10 Marks in this category.

 This 30 marks test will be conducted only if the students return to the campuses. Otherwise, these marks will be adjusted in other categories as given in the table above.

Following points serve as SOPs for assessment methods adopted by NUML. They also explains the above grading table.

- a. The assessment criterion as shown in the Table above is mid-semester exam inclusive.
- b. Class participation includes classroom discussions, questions and answers, motivation level, attendance, and overall attitude to studies.
- c. Viva/Quiz(s) shall cover mid-term marks. The Viva/Quiz(s) part is flexible so that different departments may adjust it according to the needs and requirements of their subjects and disciplines. 30 marks are allocated to three Viva/quizzes of 10 marks each. However, faculty members will have the liberty to adjust this distribution of 30 marks. All the departments shall hold Quizzes/viva & Q-A sessions on LMS-linked platforms. The timing and mode may vary but, generally, if it is 7-10 minute viva/Q-A for one student, it will suffice. Whatever platform the teachers use, all their classroom activities shall be subsequently uploaded on LMS.

- d. Assignments shall be standard assignment that students may email to their teachers as per deadlines. As per policy all assignments submitted by the students shall be run on Turnitin. FM may conduct Presentations on basis of submitted assignments to judge the personal knowledge of each student. 30 marks are allocated to three assignments/presentations of 10 marks each. However, faculty member will have the liberty to adjust this distribution of 30 marks. In case of presentation, all the departments shall hold presentations & Q-A sessions on LMS. The timing and mode may vary but, generally, if it is 7-10 minute Q-A for one student, it will suffice. Time for group presentations may accordingly be adjusted by the teachers. Whatever platform the teachers use, all their classroom activities shall be subsequently uploaded on LMS.
- e. Final 30 marks shall be allocated to Project/Term Paper/Lab Work as per the convenience of the each faculty and the nature of the course. All students shall submit the Project/term paper or simulations of lab work to their concerned faculty member in the last teaching week.
- f. Teachers will keep a proper record of all documents (in folders) in order to prove the transparency of the assessment/evaluation of their students. Students complaints if any shall referred to the Grievances Committee that will remain operative till the finalization of exam results.
- g. HoDs/Coordinators will make it sure that all teachers submit their results within 72 hours of their respective papers.
- h. Department shall ensure that CDs of video recorded lectures must be dispatched to those students who are unable to attend the lectures due to connectivity issues in far flung areas(rural areas of Baluchistan, GB, South Punjab and Sindh).

2. Guidelines for Freezing of Spring Semester 2020

NUML Academic Council has decided to suspend normal timeframe for freezing of semester as given in its academic rules and regulation in order to facilitate the students during the pandemic time. Following rules will remain operative in terms of freezing of semester in case any student has to get his/her studies frozen for the current semester:

- a. NUML will be resuming online classes for all the programs of ongoing semester i.e. Spring 2020 from May 18, 2020 to July 8, 2020. The classes will be held 6 days a week. It is mandatory for the students to attend the classes.
- b. Students can register in NUML LMS through their department (if not registered already) by providing their valid Email Address.
- c. Students from far furlong areas having internet/ connectivity issues will be facilitated by providing recorded lectures and course /reference material on CDs. The students desirous of availing this facility must inform their concerned department & coordinator/HoD. CDs will be delivered through courier service at their address free of cost.
- d. The students who are not able to attend online classes due to connectivity issue and are not willing to avail the facility of provision of recorded lectures can opt for freezing of semester. Keeping in view the special circumstances, the competent authority has relaxed the conditions of semester freeze as a special measure. The following conditions will be applicable for this semester i.e. Spring 2020 Semester, only.
 - I. Freezing of 1st semester is allowed.
 - II. 3rd consecutive freezing is allowed if it falls within total allowed degree duration.
 - III. 12% of semester fee, as continuation fee for this semester i.e. spring 2020 will be charged. However, fee paid for current semester will be adjusted in next semester accordingly.
