

Department of International Relations: Update on 3 Scholars' M. Phil. Theses Defense

The Department of International Relations takes pride in announcing the names of three scholars which have defended their M. Phil Theses successfully. The details of those students are following:

1. March 06, 2019

Mr. Haris Habib Jamwal defended his research work with the title "The West and the Rise of Muslim Militancy: Action reaction Syndrome" completed under the supervision of Ms. Pashmina Mughal whereas Dr. Mansoor Akbar Kundi was the External Examiner and the Internal Examiner was Dr. Aasia Khantoon.

Many Congratulations Dear Mr. Haris Habib Jamwal

2. March 07, 2019

Two scholars Mr. Shakeel Ahmad and Mr. Naseer Hussain defended their research work on that day. Mr. Shakeel Ahmad completed his thesis under supervision of Dr. Sarwat Rauf on the topic "Pak-Afghan Relations in the Post 9/11 Era: A Case Study of Border Management Issues", whereas Dr. Azhar Ahmad was the External Examiner and Ms. Maliha Zeba Khan was the Internal Examiner.

Mr. Naseer Hussain defended his thesis on the topic "China Pakistan Economic Corridor: Regional Peace and Stability in the Perspective of China-Pakistan-India's Interests" under the supervision of Ms. Pashmina Mughal, whereas Dr. Sadaf Farooq was the External Examiner and Dr. Sarwat Rauf was the Internal Examiner.

Many Congratulations Dear Scholars, Mr. Shakeel Ahmad and Mr. Naseer Hussain.